Community jobs for engagement professionals

Census engagement manager
Competitive salary | Ceredigion area

Are you looking for a hands-on role leading community engagement? Can you build great community relationships? We're looking for inspiring people who can work with local organisations and encourage everyone to take part in Census 2021. The census gives us a picture of communities across England and Wales, which helps to plan public services in your area. If you've worked in community engagement before and are great at building networks, apply now and help make the census work for everyone.
